

Christmas Cantata The Greatest Treasure

Tonight we invite you to ring in the holiday season here at the Bible Baptist Church. Join us and listen to classic Christmas melodies as we experience and celebrate the birth of Christ together!

SCRIPTURE

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.
Luke 2:10-11

Many confuse optimism and Biblical hope. Biblical hope is optimistic, but it differs greatly from worldly optimism or positive thinking. Biblical hope is an optimism based on certainty and truth, not upon a cheery disposition that looks on the bright side. If hope rests on mere fantasy, it is worthless. To be valid, hope must be based on truth and certainty. Since our God is the God of hope (Rom. 15:13), we who represent Him to this hopeless world must be people of hope—not mere optimists, but people filled with hope because of the certainty of God's promises in Christ.
