The text was written and the tune (Hanford or Hutchinson) was composed both by Charles Hutchinson Gabriel (1856-1932). Copyrighted in 1906, it first appeared in his 1907 compilation for the American Baptist Publication Society of Philadelphia, PA, entitled Praise and Service. When the copyright was renewed in 1934, it was owned by Homer A.

Gabriel was the source of many well known hymns, such as "I Stand Amazed," "He Lifted Me," "Precious to Me," "I Will Not Forget Thee," "Send the Light," "Only a Step," and "That Will Be Glory For Me;" tunes for "Jesus, Rose of Sharon," "Higher Ground," "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart," and "The Way of the Cross Leads Home;" and the text for "Come to the Feast."

- I. Stanza 1 says that we need to be like Him in meekness.
- II. Stanza 2 says that we need to be like Him in strength.
- III. Stanza 3 says that we need to be like Him in love.

Oh that we would strive daily to be More Like the Master, our Lord and our Saviour, Jesus Christ! It takes knowing His Word and then a humble surrender to His ways.
